Renault winner Max Coates to run IAM RoadSmart logo on racing car

We are delighted to announce that Max Coates, seven times a race winner in the Renault UK Clio Cup, will be running the IAM RoadSmart logo on his car this year. Max, who achieved a F1RST in his advanced driving test (which he took during our #FormulaDriveSmart event at Silverstone last December) has kindly donated the space on his car to IAM RoadSmart for free. Having our logo on his car is very valuable as it puts our name directly in front the biggest at-risk age group when it comes to drivers - young men under 25 - who are the largest audience for this type of racing. The Renault UK Clio Cup supports the British Touring Car Championship, so look out for Max and his Clio as part of ITV4's race-day coverage through the year.

Only a few days left to win a £50 Amazon voucher

For your chance to win this great prize, we want you to capture photos of spring whilst driving or riding on-road - but remember to either get a passenger to take the photo without them being a distraction. or pull over somewhere safely before doing so. For more information about how to enter, visit our 'Spring into action' page where we've also included driving and riding tips for you to share on social media and with non-member friends and family to help them prepare for the new season.
